

WE ALL WANT LOVE

A SOLO CAREER DEBUT!

Montreal, January 13th, 2017 – A few months after the launch of her first EP, singer-songwriter May Wells today released We All Want Love, her first solo track.

“I wrote this song to talk about relationships in 2017. With technology keeping us apart, and the search for the perfect life, we may be looking in all the wrong places. One thing is for sure, whatever one’s technology, politics, colour or origin, we all want one thing: to love and to be loved.”

– May Wells

Launched in Quebec last September, the track has already received 120,000 listens on Spotify and has been on the ADISQ correspondents’ Top 100 for 13 weeks. The We All Want Love video has received over 100,000 YouTube views and is currently on rotation on MusiquePlus.

ABOUT

A finalist with her group the Garlics on MusiquePlus’s 2011 edition of Houseband Recherché, May Wells quickly took to the art of composing and producing original material. With the Garlics, she put out three albums and six radio tracks that were well received by Quebec radio stations and aired as far afield as France, Switzerland and Belgium (with a track even making it to the waves of Virgin Radio France). After playing WE Day Montreal 2015, the Garlics scored another triumph as the opening act for Simple Plan. Leaving a trail of successes and fans behind them, The Garlics split, May is now ready to achieve new goals with her own music. She’s now introducing herself to the world as May Wells, and you can bet that you’ll be hearing more about her in the future.
